This year's Bilingual Christian Convention, "Giving God Glory in the Church," took place February 26-28 at Colegio Biblico. On Friday night, 120 people gathered for a banquet in Eagle Pass to kick off the activities. They enjoyed a delicious meal, special music by Lydia Abbot from Cicero, Indiana, and some of our students, singing with guests JD Miller, professional musician and composer from Winchester, Kentucky, and Tim Duff, Senior Minister at Community Christian Church in New Braunfels, Texas, and a great message by Bro. Duff. On Saturday, the activities took place at the Mexico Campus with a workshop on missions by JD Miller, messages by Lincoln Christian University president, Dr. Keith Ray, congregational singing with JD and special music by Lydia and several students. Staff member Martha Rodriguez was in charge of the children's program for the weekend.

On Sunday, the Alumni Reunion was held at the Mexico Campus, with about 65 people attending. That evening, around 420 people -including members from the area churches- joined the convention for the closing service with communion and a message by Dr. Keith Ray. Thank you so much to our special guests, our staff and students, and everyone who participated to make the Bilingual Christian Convention possible! Start making plans to join us next year!

New York Volunteers

Joe & Kim Trivilino from Canton, New York, came to volunteer at Colegio from February 7 to March 2. Joe, a retired electrician, and his wife Kim worked with their friends, CB volunteers Pete and Mary Lee Beal. They did the wiring between the multipurpose building and the electrical transformer and installed motion lights outside the building. They also did the electrical wiring, installed ceiling fans, outlets and switches in two duplex buildings. Thank you so much to our friends for their willingness to give of their time and hard work!
